

WEBINAR: “United States Winter Event”
3:00 - 4:30 pm EDT
October 27, 2021

• AGENDA •

1. WelcomeStu Bresler (2 minutes)
2. Context settingLeonard Kula (10 minutes)
 - Winter weather patterns in North America – historical
 - What was unique about the weather patterns in February 2021?
3. Individual presentations.....3 x 20 minute presentations
 - System operations context
 - Installed capacity
 - Resource mix – including confidence in fuel supply
 - Interties – degree of interconnectedness with neighboring jurisdictions
 - Typical winter demand
 - Operational response
 - Planning in advance
 - Operational events, and responses including emergency actions
 - Market operations
 - Context – existing market mechanisms to acquire capacity, energy and ancillary services
 - Effectiveness of existing mechanisms to balance supply and demand during the winter event
 - Regulatory considerations
 - Extent to which the regulatory environment aided or impeded ability to address the winter supply
 - Next steps
 - Reviews, lessons learned and actions undertaken/anticipated
- Panelists:
 - Lanny Nickell (Executive VP and Chief Operating Officer, SPP)
 - Durgesh Manjure (Director Grid Operations, MISO)
 - Peter Cramton (Univ. of Maryland, Univ. of Cologne, Former ERCOT Board Member)
- Moderator:
 - Leonard Kula (VP - Planning, Acquisition & Operations and Chief Operating Officer, IESO)
4. Discussion/Q&A facilitated by Leonard Kula (15 minutes)
5. Wrap-up Leonard Kula (3 minutes)